2. Characteristic spirit and general objectives of the school

Convoy Joint N.S. is a co-educational primary school with a Church of Ireland / Presbyterian ethos under the joint patronage of The Bishop of Derry & Raphoe and The Presbytery of Derry & Donegal.

"Church of Ireland-Anglican / Presbyterian" ethos in the context of a Church of Ireland / Presbyterian primary school means the ethos and characteristic spirit of the Anglican and Presbyterian Christian tradition. This seeks to nurture and encourage the formation of the intellectual, academic, sporting, social and religious abilities of each child within the framework of the community of faith. A Church of Ireland / Presbyterian ethos encourages intellectual diversity of thought and encourages the individual to seek to understand themselves, the world around them and the connection between the world and the Divine. This understanding of school ethos promotes pluralism in thought and living, in the context of a Christian school community. Drawing on its Anglican and Presbyterian traditions, the Church of Ireland / Presbyterian School encourages home/family involvement, highlighting the importance of the family/home in the social and emotional development of the child, and more broadly, the community of the school and church.

In accordance with S.15 (2) (b) of the Education Act, 1998 the Board of Management of Convoy Joint N.S. shall uphold, and be accountable to the patrons for so upholding, the characteristic spirit of the school as determined by the cultural, educational, moral, religious, social, linguistic and spiritual values and traditions which inform and are characteristic of the objectives and conduct of the school.
